Seen & Heard Around Murray

Joe Emerson calls to say he is withdrawing from the race for County Clerk because of an old illness. Joe is a good man and could fill such an office well.

Huge bunch of Jonquils on the bank across from the bus station.

Our Amerylls has done its thing and is now on the western side of the hill.

Remember that old song "When you were on the eastern side of the mountain and I was on the western side of the hill."

If you can remember Clyde McCoy playing the Sugar Blues on his horn, then you are not a member of the Pepsi crowd.

Reading the other day where the Mills Brothers bridged the generation gap. We remember them from way back when they did little singing but imitated various musical instruments. They sing mostly now and have as good voices as they did a generation ago.

Mr. Leslie Putnam still sings and sings well.

Several Meadow Larks in the yard this morning.

"A birdie with a yellow bill hopped upon my window sill." Turned out to be a Starling.

Towhee scratching around in the flower bed under the dining room window. Looked out at him and he just turned his head to one side and looked back.

Littleness and narrowness can be found in the highest places and the lowest. And, education is no barrier to these two traits.

So far about seven City Councilmen plan to run for the office again. The last filing date is 45 days before the Primary on May 27.

Would Cost City $2,000 Or More Each Month For Plan

Mayor Holmes Ellis last night reported to the City Council that a special meeting has been set for April 22 for the discussion of a pension plan for city employees. Water & Sewer System employees, Murray Natural Gas System employees, and Murray Sanitation System employees.

The only employees of the city covered by a pension fund at this time are members of the city police and city fire departments. This fund is financed by a contribution from department members and a five cents per $100 assessment which is levied on city taxpayers. The firemen and policemen pay about one-third and the city pays two-thirds.

A pension plan for other city employees has been discussed for some time and a complete review of the plan will be explained on April 22. A representative of the state government will be present to explain the plan. Such a plan is administered by the state, not the city, and all funds for the plan are sent in to the state.

Mayor Ellis explained that under this pension plan, each employee would contribute four per cent of his salary each week and the city would furnish seven per cent. It would cost the city about $2200 each month to enter such a pension plan. The money will be furnished by the Murray Natural Gas System and the Murray Water & Sewer System.

The pension plan calls for a person to receive, no greater than 50 per cent of his salary on retirement. For each year's service with the city he accumulates a pension payment at the rate of one and one-half per cent of his salary per year. If a person works for the city for eight years, then he would be eligible to receive 12 per cent of his salary as a pension. The longer his service with the city, the larger his pension payment and he can receive up to 50 per cent of his salary.

Collections at Almo and Faxon were handled by school officials.

The Youth organization expressed the desire that this year's enrollment be used to help the regular organization finance its operations. Last year, Red Cross Youth money paid for the youth magazine which is sent to all schools, supported several services for military, including gifts for Ft. Campbell and Viet Nam, collected layettes for Vietnamese orphans, and donated $50.00 to relief for children in Biafra.

The City Judge's report for the past quarter was read and accepted by the council. The report showed that miscellaneous fines brought in $6,192.00, costs $798.00, meter violations $1,010.50 for a total of $8,000.50.

Mayor Ellis reported that he was optimistic over the outlook for the refunding of the OEO serving this area. The organization was defunded recently.

Road To Resurrection

Illustrated by Alfred J. Buescher

Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall. And they stripped Him; and put on Him a scarlet robe. And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon His head; and a reed in His right hand; and they bowed the knee before Him, and mocked Him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews! Matthew 27:27-29.

And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name; him they compelled to bear His cross. And when they came unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull, they gave Him vinegar to drink mingled with gall; and when He had tasted thereof, He would not drink. Matthew 27:32-34.

And it was the third hour, and they crucified Him. And the superscription of His accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS. Mark 15:25, 26.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

"Game of Chance"

"Fifty cents per shot," said the sign at a certain golf course. "If you score a hole-in-one, you win $5,000."

Sure enough, a golfer eventually did come through with a hole-in-one. But the proprietor refused to pay the prize money. Haled into court, he argued that the contest was a "game of chance"—hence, not enforceable by law.

However, the judge disagreed. Ordering the money paid, the judge said there was simply too much skill involved in a golf shot to classify this as a game of chance.

In varying degrees, gambling is regulated in every state. Often, under these regulations, it becomes necessary for a court to decide what is meant by the phrase "game of chance."

Sometimes the answer is relatively easy. Thus, the throwing of dice has consistently been held a game of chance. So has roulette. So has matching pennies.

On the other hand, chess and checkers and spelling bees have all been held not games of chance but games of skill.

What about bridge? Most courts have classified bridge, too, as a game of skill. However, some courts have held that it is a game of chance.

"Although there is of course an element of chance resulting from the deal of the cards," explained one judge, "there is a continually recurring necessity in the bidding and play to make decisions which will ordinarily be determinative of the outcome."

Does it "take the curse off" forbidden games of chance if the stakes are very small? As a matter of principle, no. Consider this case:

A restaurant owner was arrested on a charge of operating an illegal gaming device on his premises. Although he protested that the prizes were worth only a nickel, the court found him guilty anyway.

What the law is concerned about, said the court, is any device "designed to intrigue the unwary and arouse the latent cupidity of human nature into the notion that it could get something for nothing."

Income Tax Questions and Answers

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q - My refund came and it was lower than I expected. How can I find out why it was reduced?

A - In cases such as these, mistakes in arithmetic account for most of the adjustments. You should receive an explanation from us shortly after your refund check arrives explaining the adjustment.

This year, many mistakes in arithmetic are being made on the surcharge. Taxpayers are either reading the surcharge tables incorrectly, making mistakes by not adding it to their tax or making a mistake when they multiply by .075 to determine the amount of the surcharge.

Q - When do I have to file my estimated tax declaration?

A - Estimated declarations and first quarter payments are due April 15. Use the pre-addressed 1040-ES voucher form you received in the mail when you file. It will assure proper crediting of payments to your account.

Q - How does the $100 limitation apply to casualty losses?

A - We suffered damage from two different storms last year. A - The $100 limitation applies to each separate nonbusiness casualty. Deduct the excess over $100 reimbursed by insurance for each separate loss. See page 9 of the Form 1040 instructions for details.

Q - Is a company pension taxable?

A - Your tax liability depends on how much you contributed to the pension fund. This is explained in the instructions for Schedule B of Form 1040. Copies of this schedule and the instructions are available at many banks and post offices as well as local offices of the IRS.

Q - Can I add the medical insurance premiums I pay for my dependent mother to my own for the purpose of tax deductions?

A - Premiums paid for medical care insurance for yourself, your spouse and your dependents are deductible. Total all of these premiums you paid last year and deduct one-half of them up to $150 without regard to the three percent rule. The balance of the premiums should be included with your other medical expenses which are subject to the three percent limitation.

You must itemize your deductions to use this rule.

Q - I'm due a refund. Where should I send my return?

A - Send your return to the IRS Service Center. An envelope was enclosed with Form 1040 tax packages. If you don't have one, look on page 9 on the instructions for the address of your Service Center.

Q - When does a person have to pay self-employment tax?

A - To be liable for self-employment tax, a person must have income from a business or a trade or profession which he conducts as an independent contractor or as a member or a partnership.

To be subject to the tax net earnings from self-employment must be at least $400. For additional information see Schedule C-3.

Q - My wife died last year. I have not remarried, can I still file a joint return?

A - You can file a joint return for the year of death. You may also file as a "surviving spouse" using joint return rates for the two years succeeding the year of your wife's death if you meet certain requirements. Check page 3 of the 1040 instructions for details.

Q - Do you need to keep tax records after your refund comes?

A - Yes. Records should be kept as long as they are needed to substantiate information shown on Federal tax returns. Generally, this is a minimum of three years from the date the return was due to be filed.

Some records, like those on the purchase of a home or stock, may have to be kept indefinitely.

BASEBALL ROUNDUP

By United Press International
Dave McNally looked great for the Baltimore Orioles. Den-got McNally of the Detroit Tigers got smacked around. Tom Seaver of the New York Mets appeared competent. Joe Coleman made the Washington Senators look respectable.

Seaver was looking for a job. A rookie named Gerry Ny-man pitched 6 1/3 hitless innings
for the Chicago White Sox.
Juan Marchal was treated rudily and Satchel Paige, yes Satchel Paige, was the winning pitcher for the Atlanta Braves.

That's the way it was on the pitching mounds Thursday as the 24 major league clubs began the trek from Florida or Arizona to into old familiar cities and some new ones—like Montreal, where snow and the new stadium are fighting for supremacy.

18-4 Record
McNally held the New York Yankees to one hit over six innings, as the Orioles clinched
the Grapefruit League pennant
at Fort Lauderdale with a 4-0 victory. Baltimore ended with an 18-4 record. The lone Yankee hit was by Roy White as the Yankees say their left-handed Fritz Peterson give up all the Oriole runs in the seven innings he worked.

The Cincinnati Reds pounded McNally for 14 hits and eight runs, but the Tigers rallied from an 8-3 deficit to win, 9-8,
on a home run by Willie Horton
in the ninth inning.
Dick Radatz got credit for the victory, on two innings of relief, and also nailed down a job with the world champions.

But that meant Face, a 15-year-veteran, had to be cut. The 41-year-old hurler, acquired from Pittsburgh late last season, said:
"I know I can still help some club, even if this team doesn't think so."

The Mets made Seaver's job
easy. They raked Ray Washburn of the Cards for eight hits and five runs in the first three innings en route to their 5-0 win.
Seaver pitched eight innings, allowing only two singles while walking three and fanning five.
The Senators got a strong job
from Coleman in their 3-2 win over the Minnesota Twins at Orlando. Dean Chance took the loss, and was also touched by Frank Howard's second homer of the training season.

Sex Win 2-1
hander who pitched for Hawaii in 1968 but now is seeking the fifth starting spot on the White Sox staff, set down the first 12
Cubs in order at Indianapolis.
Ken Rudolph finally singled in the sixth. The Sox won, 2-1, with Bill Melton providing both runs with a solo homer and a double. Rudolph hit a home run for the Cubs in the ninth.

The Cleveland Indians scored Marchal for 14 hits and scored five runs in the six innings he pitched, winning 12-7.
Paige delighted the fans in Savannah, Ga. During his outlining in the Braves 1-0 victory over Richmond of the International League, the ageless wonder gave up a double, then wondered the next on a pop fly and closed it out with two strikeouts.

The Montreal Expos defeated
the Pittsburgh Pirates 9-2, and another expansion club, the Kansas City Royals, bowed to the Philadelphia Phillies, 7-3, to end their Florida work with a 10-13 mark.

The Houston Astros edged the Boston Red Sox 3-2 with Boston Jim Lonborg giving up all the runs. Tony Conigliaro clouted another home run for Boston.
And the Los Angeles Dodgers beat the California Angels in another night game 4-2.
One social note: Bo Belinsky, pitcher, will return to Hawaii for another year. He failed to make the grade with the St.
Louis Cardinals, who sold him back to his island bonanza.

Isaac Wins
At Columbia
COLUMBIA, S. C. (UPI) — Three points now separate the first two positions in NASCAR ratings after Bobby Isaac, David Pearson and Richard Petty placed 1-2-3 in Thursday's Columbia 200 auto race.

Isaac, who went into the race
in eighth place in the standings, was able to better his ranking several positions but the real battle is still between Pearson and Petty.
Petty entered the race only four points ahead of Pearson.
The third place for Petty now gives him 972 points to Pearson's 969.

It was Isaac's second consecutive win in the Columbia 200
as he finished with an average speed of 68.571 m.p.h. in a 1969
Dodge.
He held the lead until the 48th lap when his car experienced engine trouble.
Petty took over the lead when Isaac went out but Isaac slowly
made his way through the pack
and was able to move into second place on lap 120. He regained the lead to stay on lap 132.

Order of finish:
1. Bobby Isaac, Dodge.
2. David Pearson, Ford.
3. Richard Petty, Ford.
4. James Hylton, Dodge.
5. John Sears, Ford.
6. Elmo Langley, Ford.
7. Neil Castles, Plymouth.
8. Earl Brooks, Ford.
9. Dick Johnson, Ford.
10. Jeb Thomas, Plymouth.

Irish And Army Will Meet Again

NEW YORK UPI - The Army-
Notre Dame series, once college football's most talked-about rivrivalry, will renew in October with the two well known gridiron gladiators meeting in familiar surroundings of Yankee Stadium.
A contract to stage the 39th game between the two old-time antagonists in the home park of the American League baseball club will be played at 2 p.m., Oct. 11.

It will mark the 22nd clash at Yankee Stadium in the series which started in 1913. The contract provides for shifting the game to Shea Stadium, home park of the rival New York Mets, if the Yankees are involved in the World Series, which begins Oct. 11.
Should both New York teams be involved in the series, the game would be shifted to Army's Michie Stadium at West Point.

Although Notre Dame holds a commanding 25-4 edge in the series, previous games between the two have rivalled the Army-Navy Classic for spectator interest with both schools suddenly gaining large numbers of real and imaginary alumni.

No Power
Cleveland has a manager who always gets the most out of his club, but Alvin Dark can't get blood out of a turnip or many long ballers out of the gang he's handling. Azcue, Maye and Snyder were the best hitters he had last year and they supplied a total of 10 homers among them.

Ralph Houk says don't count on the Yankees, I'm not, I'm counting 'em in and marking
'em down for fifth place. In a way
Ted Williams has the roughest job of all. Nobody's expecting much out of any of the expansion clubs, but everybody's watching to see what the big guy can do in Washington. I hope he does well, but outside of Pascual and Coleman and Howard's home run bat, he doesn't have a whole lot to work with.

Billy Martin has done what no other manager has. He has said his Twins should win. They're not. Good. He's got 'em all chur-red up. They suffered a bad turn the other day when Boswell cut his hand with a knife while fishing, but he'll be back and I think Martin will be a winner in his first try.

No question but that the Twins
are in a league's "easier" division. The A's pose the only serious threat with their young pitchers and hitters like Monday, Jackson, Bando and Cater.
One way or another, the White Sox pitching staff will do a decent job. Al Lopez sees to that. But he has the same old trouble again.
No punch.
Bill Rigney's Angels disappointed everybody last year and maybe this is their year to bounce back but I'll have to see it first.

That leaves Seattle and Kansas City and you can flip a coin. I know that Marvin Milkes and pedric Tallis, who run the show for the Pilots and Royals, have done the best they could to put together representative clubs
and so have the two scouting staffs. The Pilots have a good baseball man in Joe Gordon, both are fine fellows and deserve only the best, but in case nobody told 'em, they didn't get the best in last fall's expansion draft.
If they don't know that by now,
they'll start finding out Tuesday.

Clendenon Signs With Montreal

HOUSTON UPI - The Montreal
Expos are not about to pull any stunt deals on the judge.
"This is their problem now,"
Judge Roy Hofheinz said Thursday.
What the Expos did, according to the mouthpiece of the Houston Astros, was to sign Donn Clendenon to a contract with a $14,000
raise and then try to palm off
the contract on the Astros.
Earlier in the season, Clendenon and Jay Alou were traded to Houston for Rusty Staub, Clendenon, then decided he would retire, Staub refused to return to Houston and Commissioner Bowle Kuhn ruled Staub could stay where he was.

Kuhn told the two squads to work things out between themselves and, according to the judge,
the Expos tried to pull a fast
one.
Clendenon, 32, unretired himself Tuesday and signed with Montreal, one of two expansion teams added to the national league
this season.
The former Pittsburgh Pirate star, drafted by Montreal in the expansion deal, agreed to a $36,000 contract with the Astros before he retired. His latest contract calls for $50,000 plus some extravagant fringe benefits.

Clendenon expected big things
of Brown after he broke in with
them in 1967 with 13 homers and 53 runs batted in. He fell out of favor a year ago and wound up the season at Phoenix, where he wasn't exactly a ball of fire. But many agree he has the potential to be a star, among the Expos.
Except for Brown, outfielders

Tommy Sisk and Al McBean
Pirates, Bill McCool Reds, Dick

Ken Trickey, coach for the past four years, resigned Thursday to become head coach and athletic director at Oral Roberts University, Tulsa, Okla.
Assistant coach Jimmy Earle is among those expected to be considered to succeed Trickey.
"It is with mixed emotions that I accepted the position at Oral Roberts," said the 35-year-old Trickey, a standout guard
at Middle Tennessee from 1951-
54. Trickey guided the Blue Raiders to a 13-13 record last season and a 4-10 Ohio Valley Conference mark.

"I believe MTSU has made great progress in basketball,
and I hope and believe this progress will continue," Trickey said.
Scarlett said a screening committee will be named to accept applications for the post. Minimum requirements for the position include successful college coaching and a master's degree.
"During the last four years,
Ken Trickey has breathed life into the MTSU basketball program," said Scarlett. He said Trickey's outstanding recruiting has made the Raiders competitive in the OVC.

FUNERAL SERVICES
CANTON, Ohio — Funeral
services will be conducted Saturday in north Canton for Charles Stancu Jr., a pitcher on the New York Yankees' world championship team of 1961.

an apparent heart attack. A right-hander, he had a 3-3 record with the Yanks before being traded to the Philadelphia
Phillies in 1962.

San Diego Padres Will
Have To Build This Year
BY JOE SARGIS
UPI Sports Writer
YUMA, Arizona UPI - Preston
Gomez has no illusions about his San Diego Padres.
He doesn't expect much of them in their maiden season in the big leagues but is ready for any surprise.
"We went into the expansion draft looking for players who might help us build a good club
in two or three years," Gomez said, "so we really aren't expecting much in 1969."

Will Win Some
Gomez would like to win every game we play, and I think we will win more games than the Mets and Astros did in their first year, but to expect more would not be smart.
Gomez has a flock of outfielders, little pitching to speak of three catchers who've never played a game in the big leagues and not an infielder on his entire roster anyone else might want.
In fact, things are so tough that the Padres are willing to trade anyone on their club except outfielder Otis Brown.
"He is untouchable," Gomez
said of the former Giants' outfielder, "and he is the only one in that category."

The Giants expected big things
of Brown after he broke in with

—and Christ Arose. Death gave way to life. The transition took place. In deepest reality, there is no death. The earth sleeps a few months and we call it winter. Now it awakes to spring and new beauty and vigor and fruit for harvest. As God's sun called the dead earth to put on a new dress, so He calls us to put on new graces of the spirit: love, joy, faith and self-control. Christ arose! God's world is awake! We are alert to new beauty, goodness and truth. It is Easter.

Anti-Earthquake Party Is Planned In California

By PAUL R. JESCHKE

SAN FRANCISCO UPI — Mayor Joseph Alioto's anti-earthquake party is coming as you are. Bring your own water wings.

The San Francisco mayor-tired of listening to rumors the Golden State is about to crack like a stale brownie and drop into the sea has decided on a giant public celebration to dispel the gloom.

On April 18-the 63rd anniversary of the quake and fire that nearly leveled the city - coffee will be served from Army field kitchens in downtown Union Square.

"We'll play Caruso records," says Alioto. "Maybe I'll even arrange for a special showing of the movie, 'San Francisco,' and join in a chorus or two with Jeanette MacDonald as she stands there in the ruins singing away."

Some Are Waiting

Only partially hidden by Alioto's levity, however, is the fact some Californians are actually awaiting a cataclysmic tremor which they think will strike sometime during April. Others are merely nervous. Dozens of letters have flooded into the state disaster office in Sacramento. Many are from out-of-state residents worried about friends and relatives.

"A tremendous number of them are being addressed to Governor Reagan personally wanting to know what he's going to do about it," says Charles Samson of the disaster office.

Herb Casen, columnist for the San Francisco Chronicle, claims Doubleday Books asked him to write a sequel to "Baghdad in the Bay," titled "Baghdad in the Bay."

And Howard Hughes, so the wags have it, will own the best surfing beach on the Pacific Coast after California drops off and waves lap at the Las Vegas Strip.

Actually, neither California officials nor earthquake scientists are in a position to deny absolutely a quake will strike. That's the catch. For a while it may be illogical to assume the probability of a big rocker in the immediate future, no one can be positive it won't happen.

Says the U. S. Geological Survey in nearby Menlo Park: "The plain fact is that a major earthquake will probably occur in one of the earthquake prone areas of California. But whether it will occur this month or next or not until 10 or 20 years is something we simply cannot predict."

Reluctant To Predict

But if the federal government was reluctant to predict doomsday, not so a host of self-styled seers and prophets.

"God is going to punish California for its sins," said one Southern California minister as he led his congregation out of the state. Other groups fled to the state of Washington and groups of hippies took up earthquake and flood watch in the Rocky Mountains near Denver.

"A few years ago," explains Dr. Charles Richter, the famed earthquake expert, "in 1965 to be exact, we received spurious earthquake predictions for Jan. 17, Feb. 4, March 17, April 1, April 16, all of May, May 30 and for the Imperial Valley-sometime in June or July. But it was a normal year-none came true."

Actually, scientists point out, California's several major fault lines have been slipping for as long as 100 million years. Because of the movement of the San Andreas Fault, Los Angeles is literally moving toward San Francisco at the rate of one to two inches a year.

In at least one respect, the predictions of earthquake during April are accurate. Scientists say some 200 to 300 tremors are recorded every month in the San Francisco area alone. None is strong enough to be felt by man.

ONE-YEAR STUDY

WASHINGTON AP — The Bureau of Mines will finance a $75,000, one-year study on mining disaster rescue and survival techniques. The study will be conducted by a committee of the National Academy of Engineering headed by form Bureau of mines Director Walter R. Hibbard Jr., a vice president of Owens-Corning Fiberglass Corp.

Movie Would Have Done Better Job

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD UPI — "Arsenic and Old Lace" was a famous Broadway hit and, with Cary Grant, one of the funniest movies ever made.

It is a wild farce that gains its charm from the sweetly innocent and daff couple of old ladies who happen to poison elderly gentlemen to give them peace and tranquility, and then bury them in the cellar.

Apparently the fact that "Arsenic and Old Lace" has done well on its own all these years-note the television reruns of the movie - was not enough for the adapter - producer of Wednesday night's two-hour ABC-TV version, Luther Davis.

Alters Script

He felt it necessary to alter the incomparable script, to jazz it up with attempts at being very contemporary.

As example of the updating is that the male lead, the frantically worried nephew of the old ladies, was changed from a drama critic to a television critic. His fiancée, meanwhile, was switched from a minister's daughter to a hip television actress, on a show named "Homicide," no less. Well, as anyone surely can see, these changes were monumentally necessary.

Naturally the new version started with a prolonged discotheque scene. And by the time Wednesday's "Arsenic and Old Lace" was five minutes old, it was, for all practical purposes, over, the mood ruptured, the direction of the piece roughly 180 degrees off.

The first thing is that the production was reduced to the dimension and flavor of a situation comedy. There was, alas, a laugh track. At one point, there was an inexplicable shot of an audience as if to prove there was no laugh track. It was not very convincing proof.

Not Merely Comedy

Then there was the pace of Director Robert Scheerer. He seemed unable to be convinced that "Arsenic and Old Lace" is not merely comedy, but farce. Farce, farce, so played, as it was, at a normal pace, it was slow, slow, slow. There was no bubbly feeling as the production remained earthbound. The lines were telegraphed, the performances overplayed.

Where Cary Grant was hilarious in his extreme agitation and disbelief, Bob Crane, in Wednesday's production, was, by comparison, just another upset guy. And as the pivotal old lady, Helen Hayes' essential solidness and certainty rendered her not nearly flighty enough to save the day, as the play demanded. Lillian Gish portrayed the other sister.

As the critic's dangerous older brother, Fred Gwynne seemed to be doing an imitation of Boris Karloff.

The best idea would have been to rerun the movie.

With 1,839 acres in a contiguous tract, the Texas Tech campus is one of the largest in America.

FIVE-DAY SNOW ORDEAL FATAL—Mrs. Marie Jo Flam recovers in a hospital in Los Alamos, N.M., after being lost five days in forest snowdrifts where her baby died of dehydration and exposure. By her side is her husband Paul. Flamm, 24, a nurse, drove into the mountains with the 7-month-old baby to hunt cactus, the car bogged in mud and she lost her way aloft.

INTRODUCE BILL
WASHINGTON AP — A bipartisan group of lawmakers in the House and Senate Judiciary committees have introduced a bill to establish a federal court public defender system for indigent defendants. Existing law provides for lawyers for such defendants on a case-by-case basis. The bill introduced Wednesday would create standing panels of paid lawyers.

RUNOFF IN LOS ANGELES—Mayor Sam Yorty (left), ran far behind for re-election in Los Angeles, but there will be a runoff election May 27 with 51-year-old Thomas Bradley (right), city councilman and former policeman. Since 1913, every incumbent mayor forced into a runoff election has lost.

Backstairs At The White House

By MERRIMAN SMITH
UPI White House Reporter

WASHINGTON UPI-Backstairs at the White House: Most of the tears had been shed by the time they buried former President Dwight D. Eisenhower last Wednesday in Abilene, Kan., for much of the address was spent during the preceding Washington ceremonies. But watching the people in Abilene, there were interesting aspects of the last rites of mourning which went largely unnoticed at the time.

Missing at Abilene

Missing at Abilene were such members of the old Eisenhower White House staff as James C. Hagerty who was her press secretary; his personal secretary, Mrs. Ann C. Whitman who now works in the same capacity for New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller; Thomas E. Stephens of New York, Eisenhower's appointments secretary, and Sherman Adams, who was the all-powerful assistant to the president until he ran into trouble.

late in the administration because of his friendship with Bernard Goldfine, the late New England textile man.

It is highly doubtful that these people were uninvited. They were so close to the former president for so many years that the emotional rupture of watching him disappear beneath his beloved Kansas soil may have been too much to bear.

Also at Abilene, it required the most subjective sort of judgment to determine who was more somber and downcast—President Nixon or former President Johnson who showed up at the last minute with no public forewarning.

Comparison Impossible

It is impossible to reach any sort of meaningful comparison of the Nixon and Johnson personal relationships with Eisenhower. The fact remains, however, that Eisenhower and Johnson regarded each other as friendly political enemies, but also, as personal friends and more importantly, fellow Texans.

The friendship with Johnson had a more pragmatic basis than state pride. Johnson was majority leader of a Democratic-controlled Senate during much of Eisenhower's White House tenure and without this Democratic much of Eisenhower's legislation would not have made it through Congress.

When Johnson became president and Eisenhower went into retirement, it was DDE who gave LBJ some of his stern advice in international crisis, particularly when Johnson was catapulted into the presidency by the assassination of John F. Kennedy.

Thus, it was somewhat understandable that Johnson could and would sweep into Abilene at the last minute. He felt he had every right to do so. Nixon was a different case—he not only was a friend, but also, he was President of the United States.

Had he been alive when they arrived, he would have insisted that the both of them take his conducted tour of the Eisenhower Museum and Library.

LONDON UPI — George Rigal says he understands that "a ship is abandoned when the crew have left it and there are no lights on the vessel" and can be salvaged by anyone who can take it over. So, says Rigal, he's filed a salvage claim on a 20-foot cabin cruiser someone left parked on its trailer in front of his home three days ago.

Generations Know Captain Kangaroo

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD UPI — Robert Keeshan, television's Captain Kangaroo, is the only man on the tube who can boast of having entertained a succession of five generations of Americans. Of course, his viewers are composed of the 2-6 age bracket. The New York Irishman calculates he has a turnover among viewers every three or four years. And inasmuch as he's been in the air since 1955, he's had at least five sets of fans.

Too Sophisticated

"When youngsters go off to school I love them, Keeshan explained on a trip from his New York headquarters to Hollywood. "And by the time they're seven, they're much too sophisticated for me."

Kiddy shows generally are limited to local stations with an occasional syndication series cropping up. But "Captain Kangaroo" is the only network children's show not limited to cartoons. Its ratings are uniformly high across the country which accounts for Keeshan's longevity on the air.

The heaviest graduate of Fordham University explains his popularity: "Mine isn't really a show. It's a visit. It's quiet. There is no blare of trumpets, and we keep it simple."

One-To-One

"Another thing, I have a one-to-one relationship with the child viewer. And I guess the little ones don't have time to get tired of me because they grow up and go to school."

Keeshan is modest. His show continues to excel in a tough market because he is a master of reaching youngsters at their own level and educating and entertaining them painlessly that the sand pile set absorbs bits and pieces of knowledge without being aware of it.

Moreover, Keeshan is producer of the show and has complete control over its content. It is, however, grinding work.

10TH ANNIVERSARY

WASHINGTON UPI — Sen. Robert F. Griffin, R-Mich., asks Congress today to mark the 10th anniversary of the dedication of the 2,432-mile St. Lawrence Seaway. "In its decade of use, the seaway has forged strong and valuable links between the United States and markets, people and nations around the globe," Griffin said in a speech prepared for the Senate. The waterway was dedicated June 26, 1959, by President Eisenhower and England's Queen Elizabeth.

"Elephant" For Army Is Planned

By JOHN GILMORE

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (UPI) — A prototype of what the Army hopes to be the modern equivalent of Hannibal's elephants has been unveiled here.

The 3,000 pound, four-legged walking machine is part of a three-year, $1 million project aimed at giving the Army a mechanized monster like something out of Ian Fleming's "Dr. No."

The machine is about the same size as an elephant, and can make its way over hilly or swampy terrain easily.

"Walking devices have superior performance potentials to conventional vehicles—climbing extra slopes, negotiating slopes, river banks, fording fast-moving streams and so on," Ronald A. Liston of the Army's tank command told a news conference.

Liston said the possibilities of the machine "are limited only by the imagination." One scientist compared the breakthrough

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI) — A "breath-takingly dramatic market advance" is in the wings, says the Dimes Letter, though it is still too soon to tell whether it will be only a bear market rally or a true bull market. Mutual funds have too much idle cash to remain out of the market much longer. The majority of technical

In addition to being the size of an elephant, the prototype operates like one. Its four legs have jointed knees and jointed hips operated by muscles that are powerful, 3,000 pounds per square inch hydraulic oil pumps.

The machine also has a unique nerve system or "sense of feel" that allows its driver to realize and act accordingly when one of the legs has stepped on a rock or log.

The prototype is only a first step in the development of ideas that could lead to a thing from a 200-ton walking army tank to what one scientist called "your mechanical age repairman in space."

Vaccine For German Type Measles Seen

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A vaccine against German measles (rubella), a disease that sometimes causes pregnant women to have abnormal births, may be available for use next month.

Health Secretary Robert H. Finch today issued proposed regulations establishing standards for the vaccine's production.

"This means that we are one step closer to the prevention of a disease that has caused an untold number of tragic births," he said.

Thirty days after publication of the regulation in the federal register, they will become final, and licensing could follow immediately, a spokesman for the National Institute of Health Division of Biologics Standards said.

The vaccine would be available immediately upon licensing, although in limited quantities at first. Initial distribution is expected through pediatricians. Recommendation for use of the vaccine will be determined by the National Communicable Disease Center at Atlanta.

In 1959 educational and fund-raising Crusade, the American Cancer Society, Kentucky Division, is distributing 800,000 leaflets across the Commonwealth.

Governor Louie B. Nunn, Kentucky Crusade Chairman, announced today.

"The leaflet challenges many widespread bits of misinformation, clichés and legends about cancer," Governor Nunn said.

It is hoped that the leaflet will have been in most every home in Kentucky when the Cancer Crusade is launched on April 1.

Distributed personally by ACS volunteers, the leaflet's cover reads, "If you ignore it, maybe it'll go away." and other cancer legends.

The inside page lists several other familiar alibis people have used to avoid the truth, such as, "What I don't know won't hurt me." Or, "It can't happen to me, I feel fine," or the unlikely boast, "I've never been sick a day in my life."

"The aim of the leaflet," Governor Nunn pointed out, "is to persuade those adults who do not go regularly for checkups, to do so. The American Cancer Society found in a recent survey that 57 per cent of the public do not go for checkups. And of those that do, there are three times as many women as men."

Governor Nunn stated that the leaflet also lists several vital phrases that can be readily used to unmask the misconceptions which surround cancer. "Among these," he said were one in three is being saved now, or one in two could be saved if people saw their doctors early. And for a check-up when you're feeling fine."

On the back panel of the leaflet there is a space to indicate a specific appointment for a check-up with a doctor.

The leaflet also lists the seven warning signals of cancer as a reminder to be alert to one's health at all times.

23-E A century ago this spring, as ground thawed out in Western prairies, maculura was being dug in. Maculura to botanists was Osgae orange to homesteaders. The thorny plant bore a spongy pale-green fruit larger, but much less edible, than the fruit from which it got its popular name. To the French voyageurs who discovered the Indians using the spongy yellow wood for bows, it was bois d'arc.

The Dictionary of American History (Scribner) notes, "The first nurseries on the treeless (and stoneless) prairies raised millions of these hedge plants and sold them to settlers for fences. The wood, although kitchen-ty and crooked, was used for tool handles,

MARVIN HARRIS For County Court Clerk

On April 15th, I filed for the office of County Court Clerk of Calloway County. I made the decision to enter this race after much thought, prayer and careful consideration.

As of March 28th, I am giving my full time to working my campaign. I am looking forward to calling on friends and coming to know the people of this county, whom I have not known previously. I shall see every person possible before May 27, asking for your support.

I was born on the North side of this county in Dexter, Kentucky, the son of the late Rev. Alfred R. Harris and Mrs. A. R. Harris, now of 1618 College Farm Road. I am married to the former Dorothy Trevathan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Trevathan of the Penny Road. My wife is employed as bookkeeper for Brandon Brothers Distributors, Inc. We have two daughters, Linda is a junior at Murray State University majoring in business, and Rita is a junior at Murray High School.

Our family are all members of the First Baptist Church, where I am presently serving as a deacon and associate Sunday School Superintendent. We are members of the Murray Recreation Association, where I now serve on the Board of Directors. As a member of the Murray Lions Club, I maintained an eleven year perfect attendance record. I have served on the Murray City Council and am a member of the Murray Masonic Lodge 105.

Upon my graduation from Murray University High in 1943, I went immediately into service, where I served for three years as a paratrooper with the 17th Airborne Division. My foreign service was in England, Belgium, France and Germany.

Following service, I went to work at Main Street Motor Sales. Later I went into the grocery business at Five Points. Here, I attended night classes at Murray State University in the Business Department for three years. For the past fifteen years, I have worked as a salesman for Murray Wholesale Grocery Company.

I sincerely appreciate the encouragement and help I am receiving. I earnestly ask for your consideration, vote and influence as I seek this office.
